

Privacy Policy

Able App Ltd ("Able" or "We") manages the information that We collect from you in accordance with all applicable privacy legislation in United Kingdom.

This Privacy Policy describes how Able handles your personal information, and sets out the rights and obligations that both you and Able have in relation to your personal information.

We understand your concerns regarding the privacy of your data on the internet. We have prepared this policy to help you understand the nature of the data we collect from your when visiting Able and how we use this personal data. We didn't design Able to collect your personal data from your phone while using the App. Able was built to help people trade, with the conscious awareness of the interconnectedness of everything and all life.

1. Collection and Use of Your Personal Information

Able provides a peer-to-peer marketplace for communities; helping people trade their skills and helping buyers find them.

A failure by you to provide information requested by us may mean that We are unable to provide some or all of our services to you.

Able collects personal information when you register with Able . This may include, but is not limited to, your name, phone number, email, and details about your abilities. We also give you the option of providing images and other data to be associated with your Able user profile or AbleSpace. If your personal details change, it is your responsibility to update your Able account with those changes, so that We can keep our records complete, accurate and up to date and you can be connected with other users.

You are not anonymous to us when you log into the app or post any content (including abilities, searches, or recognition) in the app or any associated forum. To enable us to improve our existing services and to create new service features, Able may collect, and share with other users and service providers on Able, information about the way you use our services, including (but not limited to) the abilities and searches you enter into in the app and the recognition you post.

When you:

- use the app to share an ability, or conduct a search, or provide a user with recognition,
- otherwise communicate in a public forum in the app,

your user name and all the material that you post is visible to other Able users and is also publicly available to other internet users. We strongly encourage you to consider this when posting. Able does not in any way control, and does not accept any responsibility or liability whatsoever for, the disclosure or use of personal information which is voluntarily posted by you in any publicly accessible area of the app.

In order to provide the best search results, we collect and process information about your actual location (for example, GPS signals sent by your mobile device).

This Application collects precise information about the location of your mobile device. If you want to disable this service, you can switch your ability to 'off' in your AbleSpace.

Able may use the information collected by it to provide the Able Services, including (but not limited to):

- identification and authentication;
- to protect Able and the users of the app;
- to provide, maintain, protect and improve our services;
- providing your information to another Able user
- to develop new service features;
- to contact you (for example, to inform you about upcoming changes or improvements to our services);
- to conduct research;
- to expand our user base;
- to develop our relationships with affiliate service providers;
- to provide or arrange internal or external verification services obtained by you via the app; and
- to generate data reports on an aggregated, non-personally identifiable basis, for both internal and third party use, but subject to any applicable laws (for example, We may show Third Parties trends relating to the general use of Able's services).

When you contact Able, We may keep a record of the communication(s) between you and Able to help resolve any issues you might have. If other user(s) of the app already have your user name (or other information identifying you), and you have chosen to upload a photo or other personal information to your Able account, We may show those user(s) that personal information.

2. Children

We do not use the Application to knowingly solicit data from children under the age of 14. If a parent or guardian becomes aware that his or her child has provided us with information without their consent, he or she should contact us at info@able.global. We will delete such information from our files within a reasonable time.

3. Cookies and Anonymous Identifiers

The app may collect certain information automatically, including, but not limited to, the type of mobile device you use, your mobile devices unique device ID, the IP address of your mobile device, your mobile operating system, the type of mobile Internet browsers you use, and information about the way you use the Application. We may also use cookies or anonymous identifiers when you interact with our affiliate service providers (for example, when you integrate your Able account with your Facebook profile).

4. Protecting and Maintaining Personal Information

Your account is protected by a password for your privacy and security. We will take all reasonable steps to protect the information We hold about you from unauthorized access, use and disclosure, however We cannot guarantee the absolute security of that information, or that our systems will be completely free from third party interception or are incorruptible from viruses. We cannot and do not guarantee that information you send from your mobile device to us over the Internet will be protected by any form of encryption (encoding software). In light of this, We cannot and do not ensure or warrant the security or privacy of your personal information. You transmit your personal information to us at your own risk.

You are entirely responsible for maintaining the security of your passwords and/or account information.

5. Third Parties

The app may contain links to third party websites. If you follow a link to any of these websites,, or use any services obtained from third party service providers via the app that requires you to provide personal information (including sensitive information if relevant) directly to such third parties, note that they have their own privacy policies. If you use our app to link to another site, or use a service obtained from a third party service provider via the app, you will be subject to that site's or third party's terms and conditions of use, privacy policy and security statement. We strongly encourage you to view these before disclosing any of your personal information on such sites.

Able does not control, and does not accept any responsibility or liability for, the privacy policy of, and use of personal information by, any party other than Able , including any user of the app, the operators of any website to which the app links, or third party service providers to whom you directly provide your personal information (including sensitive information if relevant) to.

If Able is involved in a merger, acquisition or asset sale, We will give affected users of the app notice before their personal information is transferred to another entity or becomes subject to a different privacy policy.

Third-party vendors, including Google, may show Able ads on sites across the Internet.

The Able app makes use of the Google Maps API to assist with location based information. More information about the Google Maps API and the related privacy policy can be found here <http://www.google.com/privacy.html>

6. Administrative Communications

Able reserves the right to send you administrative and account-related messages that you may not opt-out of. To cease all communications to you from Able you must close down your Able account by notifying Able at info@able.global

7. Accessing Personal Information and account closure

We will allow you, at any time, to access, edit, update and/ or delete the personal information that We hold about you, unless:

- We are legally permitted or required to deny you access to, and/ or to retain, the information; or
- you make request(s) that are unreasonably repetitive, require Able to make a disproportionate technical effort (for example, to develop an entirely new system), risk the privacy of others, or would be highly impractical to comply with.

If you wish to access the personal information We hold about you, or to delete your Able account, please contact us via the app or info@able.global

We need to prevent information in our systems from being accidentally or maliciously destroyed. This means that, where you delete information from our services, residual copies of that information on our active servers, as well as any corresponding information on our back-up systems, may not be immediately deleted.

8. Privacy Concerns

If you have concerns about how We handle your personal information or require further information, please email Able using the contact form provided in the app. If you make a formal written complaint in relation to our compliance with this Privacy Policy, We will contact you to follow up on that complaint. Other than material that you voluntarily choose to post on the app (such as AbleSpace profile, task search and invites), the only information about you that We will post publicly is your AbleSpace.

Able may, from time to time, modify this Privacy Policy (and update the web page on which it is displayed). Able will send notification of any such modification to your Able account and/or your registered email address. You should check that account regularly.

Able was built with the conscious awareness of the interconnectedness of everything and all life.
